ARCHDUKE JOHN DEAD.

Austria Orders the Body Be Found and Identified.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Archduke Johann Salvator of Austria, known also as John Orth and John Salvator, died in Denver last Saturday. This became known when the Austrian consul, George Von Grivico called on Mayor Speer and asked his assistance in finding the body of the supposed nobleman. Under what name he lived here and died here is a mystery.

Although Salvator has been absent from Austria for many years it is evident that the Austrian government has kept track of him. A cable from the state department at Vienna, a telegram from the Austrian ambassador at Washington and notification from the Austro-Hungarian consul at San Francisco conveyed the intelligence of the archduke's death to the local Austrian consulate and gave instructions that the body be found and properly identified.

Last year the archduke was discovered in Painesville, O., living under the name of John Salvator or John Orth, and he is believed to have come to Denver soon after that time. Mayor Speer admitted that search was being made in accordance with a request of the Austrian government.

Unusual interest was manifested at the Austro-Hungarian embassy in Washington last May over the report that Archduke Johann Salvator of Austria, who renounced his rights nearly twenty years ago, was working as a machinist in Painesville, O. Archduke Johann is supposed to have been in a ship which sank off Argentina nineteen years ago. However, it never was established positively that he was on that boat.

"I am Johann Salvator, the missing archduke of Austria," John Orth, the Painesville machinist, told a newspaper reporter.

Orth, or Salvator, at that time was earning $15 a week, in the Coe machine shop. He wore his beard cut in the fashion adopted by the Emperor Franz Josef, and with his derby hat easily might have posed for a replica of a photograph of the emperor taken in hunting costume. Last August a statement issued from the office of the Austrian consul in Cleveland said that the Painesville machinist's claim was false, but that didn't change Orth's mind any.

"I am legally dead," Orth said. "I am the second cousin of the Emperor Franz Josef and I presume that I would, under certain circumstances, become the emperor of Austria-Hungary. But I am legally dead now. We intended to go to South America," he said, "but came to America instead. My wife is dead. She was an opera singer. I came to the United States five years after the disaster at Mount Pelee, in which my wife and two children were killed."

IT KILLED SMYTH.

He Tried to Straighten Out John P. Walsh's Affairs.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—John M. Smyth, a pioneer millionaire merchant and politician of Chicago, who has been ill of pneumonia for a week or more, died at his home today.

Mr. Smyth was a close business associate of John R. Walsh and is said to have impaired his vitality by working nights and days in an endeavor to help straighten out Walsh's tangled financial affairs.

FIND BAG OF GEMS.

Two Little Girls in Kansas City Pick Up $700 Worth.

Kansas City, Nov. 4.—Nobody in Kansas City who has a $10 bill thinks as much of it that money as Loretta Haurahan, of 1225 Forest avenue and Marie Fitzgerald, of 732 Campbell street think of theirs. These proprietors of swollen fortunes are 9 and 10 years old, respectively, and their $10 bills are rewards for finding $700 worth of diamonds belonging to Mrs. M. A. Fyke of 1110 Forest avenue. The diamonds were lost from a pocket of Mrs. Fyke's skirt Monday afternoon.

When St. Patrick's school at Eighth and Cherry streets was dismissed that afternoon, Marie went home with Loretta. The two were skipping along Forest avenue near Twelfth street. Marie's foot tripped on a small chamomile bag. The two saw it at the same time, but in the rush to pick it up, Marie was first. She opened it and there right on top was a great big, green $5 bill.

The little party escorted the chamomile bag back to its owner. Loretta took one final, tearful look at the greenback. Mrs. Fyke described the jewelry perfectly. There could be no doubt.

"Here!" called Mr. Fyke as the two little girls turned to leave, "here's a small present for you," and he gave each a $10 bill.

The little girls were friends again. The street felt crowded as they walked down it with all that money. Marie declared that she was going to invest her entire fortune in lique dolls with yellow curls. "I'm going to buy a Sutherland pony," she announced last night. The $10 was clutched tightly in one hand. "A Sutherland pony with white spots. 'Course I'll have to save up a little longer. I had seventy-five cents already—now I've got seventy-five cents and $10. I'm going to put it all in the bank. No, not one cent more; my iron bank back in the kitchen."

LYNCHING IMMINENT.

Two Negroes Are Held for Assault on a White Woman.

Gassaway, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Every precaution is being taken today to prevent the lynching of two negroes under arrest in connection with an attack made yesterday on Mrs. Albert Lockhold, a white woman, by three negroes, one of whom was run down last evening by an infuriated crowd and riddled with shot.

Word from the Lockhold home at Exchange, near here, is that Mrs. Lockhold will recover.

The jail is heavily guarded by deputies armed with rifles.

One of the prisoners, John Robinson of Elkins, W. Va., protests his innocence. The other refuses to talk. The assault on Mrs. Lockhold was most brutal. After breaking into the house the three negroes tied the husband and foot and before his eyes ill-treated his wife. Soon after the negroes departed Lockhold freed himself and summoned aid among the farmers. One of the men, Charles Lewis was traced to a small store in the vicinity of the Lockhold home, and shot dead as he reached in his pocket for a weapon. Several hours later the men now under arrest were captured.

Torch in "Gamblers' War."

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 4.—An attempt to destroy by fire the Dearborn park pool room and its surrounding stockade at Clark station, was made early today. Men living in the neighborhood formed a bucket brigade and saved the building. It is said that the alleged "gamblers' war" of Chicago, has been extended to resorts in this vicinity.

WALSH ASKS A REHEARING.

Aged Chicago Banker Wants One More Chance.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—A petition for rehearing in the case of John R. Walsh, the convicted Chicago banker, was filed today by attorneys for the plaintiff in error in the United States circuit court of appeals. The petition sets forth that the opinion of the court in its decision upholding the verdict of "guilty" from the court below was based "upon a misconception of the case and the rules of law applicable."

CIMARRON MEN HONORED

Carnegie Hero Commission Rewards Deeds of Brave Men.

Cimarron, Kan., Nov. 4.—Clarence M. Thompson of this city received a large silver medal and $1,000 for his work in trying to save the lives of Eugene G. Davis and Nelson C. Thompson, his son, May 18, 1909. Davis and Nelson Thompson were digging a well on the Davis farm, 12 miles from Cimarron. They set off a blast. Five hours later they started to enter the well when Davis fell to the bottom of the well and was killed. Young Thompson climbed down the well and hitched a rope about Davis and had two women above hitch a mule to the rope to pull him up, but the mule was wild and ran into the well, which was not yet rid of gas. The elder Thompson was summoned. He went into the well, tied ropes about both of the men and had them dragged to the surface, though they were dead. Thompson was rescued two hours later, more dead than alive.

Young Thompson also received a silver medal and $1,000 for his work in the rescue of the elder Thompson at the Davis well accident. Bayless reached the well after the bodies of Davis and Nelson Thompson had been drawn up and tried to get some answer from the older Thompson.

He was lowered into the well and tied a rope around the unconscious Thompson and signaled to those at the windlass to hoist him. The rope was then lowered again and Bayless had scarcely strength to tie it around himself and call to be hoisted.

MAY ABOLISH SPIKES.

American League Magnates Will Attempt to Find Substitute.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The American League at its annual meeting next month, the exact date of which has not been decided, will take up seriously the matter of abolishing spikes from the paraphernalia of the diamond.

President Johnson made that statement yesterday in discussing the probable problems which will be considered by the league magnates this winter. He said it was hoped a suitable substitute for the spike now in use on the shoes of players would be discovered and agreed upon, for the purpose of eliminating at least a portion of the accidents which have marred the sport during the last season.

Played a No Score Game.

LaHarpe, Kan., Nov. 4.—The Chanute and LaHarpe high schools, contending for the championship of southwestern Kansas, played a no score game here. Neither team has lost a game this season. LaHarpe was penalized 55 yards to Chanute's 40. Fretter Donald of K. U. refereed.

Wells Fargo & Co. will sell unclaimed matter at public auction commencing Saturday morning, November 6, at 120 East Fourth street.

NEW WARD PARK

People of Second Ward Have Talked Up Another Plan.

Figuring on Klein Tract Between Lake Street and Creek.

WANT MEETING PLACE

Working Men Feel as Though They Should Get Together.

"No More Personal Freedom," Says Councilman Miller.

A park in the Second ward—this is a problem that has been on the city slate for twenty-five years. Further, more it is a problem that has received some very unsuccessful answers. But if the present plans are carried out the sponge can be applied to the slate and the Second ward will have their long cherished hobby fulfilled.

There is a movement on hand to establish a real Second ward park—a park where the laboring men of this district in the city can spend their Sundays and their evenings and not find it necessary to dodge "Keep-off-the-grass" signs and "Keep-on-the-walk" warnings. This proposed park will be situated at the old Klein tract site between Lake street and the Shunganunga just north of Third street.

A park on the east side according to the wishes of the people will be different than anything else in the city. The Second warders want something practical—something more than a party spot and a spotless garden. They want a real playground, a real resting place and a gathering point for the people, their friends and strangers.

There is a peculiar old fashioned southern spirit existing in this ward. The people are of the class who require and demand a pleasure and a recreation one day out of the week. The average laboring man, doctor or mechanic needs this sort of a thing in his daily work and with the establishment of a park in the Second ward he will get all of these advantages.

It is claimed that the Santa Fe people are having a hard time to procure shop men, on account of the fact that Topeka is under the strict adherence of the "blue laws." It is said that workingmen want his freedom one day in the week and there are larger cities where he can get it without the present restrictions. With a good park in the east side the shop men are going to have a meeting place on Sunday and will not find it necessary to resort to the railroad yards or the hotels.

The present time there are no gathering places of any kind in the Second ward. "The working man does not have a thing in this ward to enjoy himself with," states Councilman Miller. "If he finally ends up at the hotel during a Sunday and as a pastime engages in a game of checkers, the police come swooping down and making an arrest. I have seen an arrest of this kind made and it is an injustice to the man who has but one day in the week to enjoy his personal liberty."

Proposed Park of 22 Acres.

The Klein park site comprises about 22 acres. There are two large groves which could be fitted up in fine shape for benches and picnic grounds. Then there is a large level field well adapted for playground, baseball and football fields and an athletic field. Near the lower end of the tract the ground slopes into a natural basin. This could be filled with water and made into a beautiful artificial lake. There is not a better place in Topeka for a park of this kind.

The people in the Second ward do not want a bunch of cinder walks, fine grass trimmed like a barber, expensive plants and shrubbery. They want lots of shade, plenty of good heavy grass, water and a place to rest. To find a park where it is not necessary to be on dress parade before a person feels right in entering, is what they are looking for and what they have found in this new tract.

This park can be purchased at $1,500 an acre. This is the price placed on the tract at this time. But the people believe it is too high and it is thought the price can be greatly reduced if the park proposition goes through. There are a number of people in the ward who will be against the proposed park because they believe that it will place a too large assessment upon their property and they will feel as though they are not able to pay for it. But with a better price placed on the land there will be little opposition against the purchase and the improvement.

POINTS TO BLACKMAIL.

Mystery Surrounds Shortage of a Railway Treasurer.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—While the whereabouts of C. L. Warriner, the deposed local treasurer of the Big Four railway have not been disclosed, it was given out today that Warriner has returned from New York with railway officials with whom he has been conferring regarding the tangle in his accounts.

Officials of the road refuse to make public the extent of the supposed shortage estimated at $50,000 to $100,000. It was intimated this morning that the arrest of a Chicago man in connection with the Warriner case on a charge of blackmail is contemplated.

It is said that this man was at one time an employee of the Big Four and that he had knowledge of an alleged earlier defalcation on the part of Warriner and that he used this knowledge to blackmail Warriner.
